

ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASSES 2023

All Sunday school classes currently meet at 9:15 a.m.

Class	Teachers	Room
Welcome All God's Children This class is unique, with single and married persons, male and female, ages 30 to 80. This warm and caring class has teachers who are interesting, inspiring, and well-prepared, but discussion is always encouraged.	Frank Tedards	200
Sojourners This class has a casual, relaxed learning environment with a "from-the-heart" teaching style. The participants in this loving, prayerful group are mostly in their 40s, 50s, and 60s, and will be quick to welcome and support you.	Helen Hewitt	201
N.O.P. (No One's Perfect) This diverse class is currently composed of adults in their 50s and 60s, but is open to people of all ages. Our class is home to single adults, married couples and folks who attend without their spouse. Our teachers are well-prepared and our discussions are engaging.	Margo Love, Libby Young	202
Come and See This class is open to adults of all ages and from any life situation. Using a discussion-based format, we address issues faced by today's individuals and society from a Biblical perspective. Come and see this Jesus of Nazareth (John 1:46).	Bob Walker, Bert Kirby	203
Early Bird This class is open to adults of all ages and from any life situation. We enjoy fellowship and Bible study, as we try to find how the Bible applies in our everyday lives.	Rosemary Bomar, Lib King	205A
Pathfinders This class includes college students and other young adults exploring ways to love God with all their hearts, souls, and minds, and to love their neighbors as themselves.	Leslie Boehm	205B
Daily Bread We acknowledge the need for God as our Daily Bread and strive to learn about and worship Him every day, not just on Sundays! We are young-ish adults and are vibrantly social. Our classes are discussion-based, and we share openly about our faith.	Mary Beth Young, Meredith Smith	205C
Round Table The Round Table is filled with adults of all ages who engage scripture & open discussion from each other. We challenge ourselves every week with biblical lessons to become stronger Christians and supporters of the church. Come join our Round Table!	Emory Hendrix, Stuart Moore, Amy Moore	206

Reflections	Wendell Cothran, John Kincaid, David Dalhouse, Ted Brigman, David Clyborne	300A
This class is mostly middle-aged adults but is open to anyone. We use a quarterly lesson curriculum, moving through books of the Bible with learning and discussion.
Gleaners	Blaun Bennett	300C
Our class is an all-women's class made up of women who feel comfortable with each other and who enjoy and trust conversation among ourselves. After studying Scripture, we discuss our reading and look for application in each of our own lives. Women of all ages are welcome and encouraged to join us.
Loaves and Fishes	Don Kirkland, Ron Bridwell	301
This class is composed of adults ranging in age from 60 to 80. The teaching style is lecture with opportunity for discussion, and the teachers are Don Kirkland and Ron Bridwell. This class meets both in-person and via Zoom. This class desires to take what they are fed on Sunday and multiply the blessings		