

ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASSES

All Sunday school classes currently meet at 9:15 a.m., unless otherwise noted.

Class	Teachers	Room
Welcome All God's Children	Frank Tedards	200
This class is unique, with single and married persons, male and female, ages 30 to 80. This warm and caring class has teachers who are interesting, inspiring, and well-prepared, but discussion is always encouraged.
Sojourners	Helen Hewitt	201
This class has a casual, relaxed learning environment with a "from-the-heart" teaching style. The participants in this loving, prayerful group are mostly in their 40s, 50s, and 60s, and will be quick to welcome and support you.
N.O.P. (No One's Perfect)	Margo Love, Libby Young	202
This diverse class is currently composed of adults in their 50s and 60s, but is open to people of all ages. Our class is home to single adults, married couples and folks who attend without their spouse. Our teachers are well-prepared, and our discussions are engaging.
Come and See	Bob Walker, Bert Kirby	203
This class is open to adults of all ages and from any life situation. Using a discussion-based format, we address issues faced by today's individuals and society from a Biblical perspective. Come and see this Jesus of Nazareth (John 1:46).
Early Bird	Rosemary Bomar, Lib King	205A
This class is open to adults of all ages and from any life situation. We enjoy fellowship and Bible study, as we try to find how the Bible applies in our everyday lives.
Pathfinders	Leslie Boehm	205B
This class includes college students and other young adults exploring ways to love God with all their hearts, souls, and minds, and to love their neighbors as themselves.
Daily Bread	Mary Beth Young, Meredith Smith	205C
We acknowledge the need for God as our Daily Bread and strive to learn about and worship Him every day, not just on Sundays! We are young-ish adults and are vibrantly social. Our classes are discussion-based, and we share openly about our faith.
Round Table	Emory Hendrix, Stuart Moore, Amy Moore	206
The Round Table is filled with adults of all ages who engage scripture &amp; open discussion from each other. We challenge ourselves every week with biblical lessons to become stronger Christians and supporters of the church. Come join our Round Table!

- Reflections Wendell Cothran, David Clyborne 300A
This class is mostly middle-aged adults but is open to anyone. We use a quarterly lesson curriculum, moving through books of the Bible with learning and discussion.
- Gleaners Blaun Bennett 300C
Our class is an all-women's class made up of women who feel comfortable with each other and who enjoy and trust conversation among ourselves. After studying Scripture, we discuss our reading and look for application in each of our own lives. Women of all ages are welcome and encouraged to join us.
- Loaves and Fishes Don Kirkland, Ron Bridwell 301
This class is composed of adults ranging in age from 60 to 80. The teaching style is lecture with opportunity for discussion, and the teachers are Don Kirkland and Ron Bridwell. This class meets both in-person and via Zoom. This class desires to take what they are fed on Sunday and multiply the blessings.
- Wednesday Women's Group Beverly Bass 200
This class is composed of women ranging in age from 60 to 80. They meet on Wednesday mornings from 11:00 am-12:00 pm.
