

Sunday School at 9:15 am
Starting Sunday, November 14

In addition to being excited about returning to worship in the Sanctuary, we are also excited about the return of one hour of Sunday School at 9:15 am, starting November 14. For all classes to meet during the same hour, several Sunday School classes will be relocated to different rooms. A huge thanks to these classes for being flexible, willing and cooperative in changing their room locations!

If you are not currently involved in a Sunday School class, now is a great time to visit some classes. There are classes for all ages with a variety of different teaching styles and curriculum. Check out the listing below for the classes, their room locations effective November 14, and details about each class.

Adult Sunday School Classes

Come and See (second floor/Room 203)

This class is composed of adults ranging in age from 50 to 80 with a variety of life situations. The teaching style is discussion-based, and the teachers are Bert Kirby, Mike Brown and Bob Walker. You are invited to “come and see this Jesus of Nazareth.”

Daily Bread Class (first floor/Room 100)

This class is composed of adults in their 30s and 40s. The class is discussion-based, and the teachers are Meredith Smith and Mary Beth Young. The class acknowledges the need for God as our Daily Bread, and they strive to learn about and worship him daily.

Gleaners (third floor/Room 300-C)

This class is composed of women of all ages. The teaching style is a combination of lecture and discussion, and the teachers are Blaun Bennett and Ryder Martin. These ladies desire to “glean” applications from the Scriptures for their daily lives.

Loaves and Fishes (third floor/Room 301)

This class is composed of adults ranging in age from 60 to 80. The teaching style is lecture with opportunity for discussion, and the teachers are Don Kirkland and Ron Bridwell. This class meets both in-person and via Zoom. This class desires to take what they are fed on Sunday and multiply the blessings.

No One's Perfect (second floor/Room 202)

This class is composed of adults in their 50s and 60s, male and female, single and married. The class features a combination of lecture/teaching and discussion, and the teachers are Libby Young and Margo Love. This class meets both in-person and via Zoom. This class welcomes all, acknowledging none of us is perfect.

Open Door (second floor/Room 204)

This class is composed of adults in their 60s and 70s. The teaching style is lecture-based, and the teacher is Andy Clark. The door to this class is always open for you to come in and learn and then go out and serve.

Pathfinders (third floor/Room 300-B)

This class is composed of young adults in their 20s and 30s. The teaching style is discussion-based. Everyone is welcome and encouraged to bring their own unique insights to each lesson. The teachers are Kat Holtzclaw and Leslie Boehm.

Reflections (third floor/Room 300-A)

This class is composed of adults ranging in age from 50 to 80. The teaching style is lecture with opportunities for discussion and focuses on moving through the individual books of the Bible. The teachers are David Clyborne, John Kincaid, David Dalhouse, Ted Brigman and Wendell Cothran.

Round Table (second floor/Room 206)

This class is composed of adults of all ages and life situations. The teaching style is open discussion with challenging topics. The teachers are Amy and Stuart Moore, Emory Hendrix and Will Middleton. This class meets both in-person and via Zoom. There is always room at the Round Table and everyone's voice is heard.

Sojourners (second floor/Room 201)

This class is composed of adults ranging in age from 40 to 60. The teaching style is casual, relaxed and open to discussion. The teacher is Helen Hewitt.

The Journey (second floor/Prayer Room)

This class is composed of adults in their 60s to 80s. The teaching style is a combination of relaxed lecture and discussion, and the teacher is Barbara Massey. This class encourages members to plan their spiritual journey through prayer, Bible study, and reflective journaling.

Welcome All God's Children (second floor/Room 200)

This class is composed of single and married adults, male and female, and ages range from 30 to 80. The class is a combination of lecture/teaching and discussion, and the teacher is Jimmy Stenhouse. Everyone is welcome in this class, regardless of age or situation in life.

Young Adults Class (Family Life Center)

This class is composed of young adults in their 20s and 30s. The teaching style is informal and relaxed, and the teachers are Stephen Clyborne and Tommy Wilkinson.

And if you can't join us at 9:15 for Sunday School . . .

Early Bird Class (meets at 8:00 am via Zoom)

This class is composed of adults ranging in age from 50 to 80 who find joy in joining in Bible study early on Sunday mornings. The teaching style is casual lecture with opportunities for discussion. The teachers are Frank Hawkins, Rosemary Bomar and Lib King. This class meets via Zoom.